

6/3/86
JAMES C. MORRIS

James G. Morris, 87, 1441 Western Ave., Albany, New York, formerly of 166 Bay St., Taunton, died yesterday at an Albany nursing home after a short illness. He was the husband of the late Hazel M. (Chase) Morris.

Born in Fall River, he was the son of the late Thomas and Mirya (Godfrey) Morris.

He lived most of his life in Taunton before moving to Albany six years ago.

He was employed as a farmer for 50 years with the Commonwealth of Massachusetts state farm in Raynham before retiring in 1968.

He was a member of the Memorial United Methodist Church in Taunton.

He was a veteran of World War One, serving as a private with the U.S. Army, Battery D of the 29th Coast Artillery.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Boris (Patricia) Grechan of Albany; and one son, William J. Morris, Key West, Florida.

JAMES CAREY

James W. Carey, 70, of 10 Coram St., died yesterday at Morton Hospital after a short illness.

He was the husband of Mrs. Theresa (Perry) Carey.

Born in Wilton, Maine, he was the son of Edna C. Pike and the late James M. Carey. He lived most of his life in Taunton.

He was employed for 40 years at Haskon, Inc., retiring in 1980 as a quality control inspector. He was educated in Taunton schools, and served with the Navy during World War Two.

Besides his wife and mother he is survived by one daughter, Mrs. James P. (Jane M.) Trucchi of Raynham; four sons, Philip F. Carey of North Dighton, James M. Carey of Dighton, Kevin W. Carey of St. Paul, Minnesota, and Timothy M. Carey of Rehoboth; three stepsons, Michael A. and Gary R. Taft of Taunton, and Steven M. Taft of San Antonio, Texas; two sisters, Mrs. Ruth Almeida of Taunton, and Mrs. Bertha Meikle of North Windham, Connecticut; and two brothers, J. Philip Carey of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, and Harry R. Carrey of Raynham.

6/29/85 TA
JOHN E. SILVEIRA

John Enos Silveira, 88, of 121-2-A Pratt St., husband of the late Jennie (Gonsalves) Silveira, died Thursday morning at Morton Hospital following a long illness.

Born in Magdalena, Pico Azores, he was a son of the late Joseph E. and Eulalia (Dutra) Silveira. He came to this country when he was 9 years old and was a communicant of Our Lady of Lourdes Church.

He worked for many years as a molder at the Leonard and Baker Stove Foundry and the Glenwood Range Co., and in later years worked as a self-employed carpenter, retiring in 1965.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. William J. (Geneva) Brodie of Taunton; three sons, John Enos Silveira Jr. of Rehoboth, Joseph Enos Silveira and Manuel Enos Silveira, both of Taunton; 12 grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

ROSE G. MEDAS

Rose G. (DeMoura) Medas, 85, of 8 Cushman St., died suddenly at home Friday.

Wife of the late Manuel I. Medas, she was born in Berkley and was a licensed practical nurse at the Dever State School before her retirement in 1970.

She was the daughter of the late Joseph and Conceicao (Lewis) DeMoura and was a communicant of Our Lady of Lourdes Church and a member of the OLOL Holy Rosary Sodality.

She was a member of the Lucky Seniors, the Taunton Golden Age Club and the F.O. Eagles Ladies Auxiliary.

Survivors include two sons, Robert J. of Attleboro and Albert E. of Coventry, R.I.; one daughter, Dorothy Jacobs, with whom she resided; one brother, Alfred DeMoura of Taunton; two sisters, Laura Ferreira of Taunton and Mary Todd of Wildwood Crest, N.J.; four grandchildren; one great-granddaughter; and several nieces and nephews.

ANNA ALMEIDA

ATTLEBORO — A funeral mass was said for Anna Almeida at the Holy Ghost Church Monday by her son, Rev. George F. Almeida, pastor of St. Elizabeth's Church in Edgartown, Martha's Vineyard Island.

Mrs. Almeida, 76, of wife of Manuel Almeida of Attleboro, died May 31 at the Sturdy Memorial Hospital in Attleboro.

Born in Newport, R.I., she was a daughter of the late Manuel and Rose (Deniz) Medeiros. She had lived in Attleboro for the past 45 years and was a communicant of the Holy Ghost Church there.

A jewelry worker, she has been employed by Shield's, Inc., for several years until she retired in 1974, and had previously worked for the Wolfenden Co.

The theme of her son's eulogy was "A Beautiful and Saintly Mother."

In attendance at the mass were Bishop Daniel A. Cronin of the Fall River Diocese, Rev. Msgr. Luiz G. Mendonca, vicar general of the Fall River Diocese, 40 diocesan priests, relatives and friends from Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, New Bedford; St. Anthony's Church and Our Lady of Lourdes Church, both of Taunton; St. Michael's Church, St. Anthony of Padua and Our Lady of Angels Church, Fall River; St. Barnabas Church, Portsmouth, R.I.; Jesus Savior's Church, Newport, R.I.; St. Elizabeth's Church, Edgartown; and the Charismatic Prayer Group of St. Augustine's Church in Vineyard Haven, as well as many parishioners of the Holy Ghost Church in Attleboro.

In addition to her husband and son, Father Almeida, she leaves another son, James S. Almeida of Attleboro; two daughters, Marjorie A. Sears of Norton, and Rosemary Gabel of Attleboro; two brothers, Joseph Medeiros of Portsmouth, R.I., and Manuel Medeiros of Daytona Beach, Fla.; three sisters, Rose Sardella of Newport, R.I., Alice Raposa of Portsmouth, R.I., and Helen Raposa of Laurel Hills, Fla.; 11 grandchildren; and three great-grandsons.

FRANK MACHADO

Frank Machado, 72, husband of the late Ethel G. (Lee) Machado, of 690 Williams St., North Dighton, died last night at Morton Hospital after a short illness.

Born in Dighton, he lived there all his life.

He was a retired welder with General Dynamics in Quincy where he worked for 35 years. He retired seven years ago.

He was the son of the late Frank and Maria (Lawrence) Machado.

He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Raymond (Joan) Boucher of Raynham and Carol Horta of Taunton; one sister, Angelina Conha of Rehoboth; nine grandchildren; one great-grandchild; and several nieces and nephews. 6/6/85 TG