

JOHN R. AMARAL

WAREHAM — John R. Amaral, 76, of 2567 Cranberry Hwy., the husband of Hilda (Machado) Amaral, died Saturday afternoon at Tobey Hospital after a long illness.

9/6/83 TQ

Born in Taunton, he was a son of the late John and Ida Dolores (Coelho) Amaral. Until his retirement, he was a self-employed auto mechanic in Wareham, where he was a communicant of St. Patrick's Church.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by two sons, John Gilbert Amaral of Sansula, Fla., and Leo Curtis Amaral of New Smyrna Beach, Fla.; a daughter, Una Phyllis Doyle of Edgewater, Fla.; two sisters, Mary Amaral of Taunton and Beatrice Luiz of Berkley; three brothers, Joseph Amaral and Frank Amaral, both of Taunton, and Manuel Amaral of Bourne; 11 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.