ALICE ANDRADE

Alice Mary (Souza) Andrade of 82 West Main St., Norton, died Monday at Miriam Hospital in Providence. She was 62.

A lifelong resident of Norton, she was the wife of the late Frank G. Andrade. She was a communicant of St. Mary's Church in Barrowsville, where she was a member of the church's Catholic Women's Club.

For the past 25 years she was a press operator at the Kilburn Glass Company in Norton.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. David (Beatrice M.) Texeira of Attleboro, and Mrs. Leonel (Alice G.) Nunes of Norton.

She also leaves two brothers, Joseph Souza of Mansfield and Edward Souza of Norton; and five sisters, Rose Melim of Lincoln, R.I., Mary Serras and Eldora Souza, both of Norton, Doris Camara of Taunton and Beatrice Oliveira of Florida.

Also surviving are three grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.
