

ANTONIO ANDRADE

NORTON — Antonio Gomes Andrade, 66, of 114 Mansfield Ave., Norton, was dead on arrival Monday evening at Sturdy Memorial Hospital where he was rushed after being stricken at the Norton Middle School where he was working as a substitute custodian.

He was the husband of Phyllis (Gonsalves) Andrade.

Born in Norton, he was a son of the late Antonio Gomes Andrade and the late Rosa (Mendes) Andrade.

He was employed for many years by the Norton School Department as a custodian. He retired three years ago, and was occasionally doing substitute work.

He was a communicant of St. Mary's Church in Norton. Survivors include his wife; three daughters, Mrs.

Shirley Berube of Brookfield Center, Conn., Mrs. Gary (Patricia) Bears of Attleboro, and Mrs. Steven (Rosemary) Robbins of Taunton.

He also leaves two brothers, Manuel Andrade of Taunton and Edward Andrade of Caracas, Venezuela; and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Laranjo and Mrs. John (Deolinda) Rocha, both of Taunton.

Also surviving are 10 grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

11/23/82 TG