MANUEL ANDRADE
NORTH DIGHTON

Manuel Andrade, 68, of 357 Williams St., owner of Flo-Rich Produce Service, died at his home Friday afternoon following a long illness. He was the husband of Flora E. Andrade.

Born and educated in Taunton, he was a son of the late Manuel V. and Rose (Cunha) Andrade. He was a resident of North Dighton for 30 years and was a communicant of St. Joseph's Church.

A self-employed, independent trucker, he owned and operated Flo-Rich Produce Service for 29 years before his retirement in 1977.

A three-year Navy veteran of World War Two, he was a chief boatswain's mate with the 82nd Sea Bee Battalion. He served in the South Pacific for 26 months.

He was a member of the David F. Adams V.F.W. Post 611 of Taunton and of the Teamsters Union, Providence, R.I.

In addition to his wife, he is
