

Joseph Arruda 9/11/81

NEW BEDFORD — Joseph Arruda, 68, formerly of Stephen Street, died Wednesday after a long illness.

He died at the Quincy Adams Nursing Home in Brockton.

He was born in New Bedford and lived there most of his life. He was a communicant of Mount Carmel Church. Mr. Arruda was a shipping clerk at Calco Weaving Co., until retiring.

Survivors include a sister, Mary Magan, and two brothers, Honorato and Edward Arruda, all of New Bedford.

Arrangements are by the Perry Funeral Home, 111 Dartmouth St.