

Obituaries

7/1/82 T G

ANTONE AVILLA

FALL RIVER — Antone J. Avilla, 69, of 396 Williams St. died Wednesday at the home of his son Edward at 475 Tower St., following a long illness. He was the husband of Evelyn (Swass) Avilla.

A native and lifelong resident of Fall River, he was formerly employed by Citizens For Citizens, retiring in 1978. He was a member of Santo Cristo Parish.

He was the son of the late Antone and Rose (Borges) Avilla.

In addition to his widow, he leaves four sons, Paul Avilla of Dighton, Ronald Avilla of Westport, and Antone Avilla and Edward Avilla, both of Fall River; six brothers, August Avilla, Joseph Avilla, Frank Avilla, and John Avilla, all of Fall River, Daniel Avilla of Swansea, and Edward Avilla of New York, N.Y.

Also, four sisters, Mrs. Joseph (Palmida) Oliveira, Mrs. Francis (Mary) LaFontaine, and Mrs. Harold (Rose) Soares, all of Fall River, and Mrs. Raymond (Alice) Banyea of Maine; seven grandchildren; and several nephews and nieces.