

5 Obituaries

MARGARET A. BAPTISTA
ATTLEBORO — Margaret A. Baptista, 63, of 146 Oak St., a nurses aide, died Sunday at Sturdy Memorial Hospital following a short illness. She was the wife of Joseph Baptista.

Born in Chartley, and formerly of 72 King Philip Road, Norton, she was a daughter of the late George and Helen (Reynolds) Taggart.

A communicant of St. Thomas Church, she was educated in Chartley schools and served as a nurses aide for the Morin Retirement Center, Attleboro, for seven years.

Beside her husband, she is survived by three sons, Joseph Baptista Jr. of Norton, and James E. Baptista and George S. Baptista both of Attleboro.

She also leaves three daughters, Mrs. Gordon L. (Eleanor) Hines of Norton, Mrs. Frances M. Lawrence of Taunton and Mrs. Robert (Margaret L.) Paiva of Raynham.

Also, one brother, James Taggart of Norton, and three sisters, Mrs. Harold (Mary) Wade of Florida, Mrs. Paul (Eva) Martin and Mrs. John (Helen) Rostrom both of Norton and 16 grandchildren.