

6/8/80

The Providenc

Robert P. Barboza

Funeral service is set for Monday
for victim of shooting in Pawtucket

PAWTUCKET — A funeral service for Robert P. Barboza, 31, of 304 Middle St., a construction worker, who died Thursday in a shooting, will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. at the Jones-Walton-Sheridan Funeral Home, 1895 Broad St., Cranston. Burial will be in Oakland Cemetery, Cranston.

Born in Providence, he was a son of George Barboza and Dorothy (Carvara) Holmes.

Mr. Barboza was an Army veteran of the Vietnam War. He was a member of the International Brotherhood of North American Construction Workers, Local 271.

Besides his parents, he leaves a son, Robert P. Barboza Jr., and a daughter, Dawn Barboza, both of Cranston; three sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Petrucci of Warren, Mrs. Alice O'Rourke of Warwick, and Mrs. Georgia Nicholson of Cranston; four brothers, Richard, George and Joseph Barboza, all of Providence, and Ronald Barboza of Pawtucket.