

JOSEPH G. BARROS

Joseph G. Barros, 68, of 915 Somerset Ave., died Sunday at Morton Hospital following a long illness.

Born in Funchal, Madeira, he came to this country 65 years ago and was a self-employed milkman until his retirement three years ago. He was also employed at Olson's Greenhouses.

He was a communicant of Our Lady of Lourdes Church. He was a son of Augusta G. (Britto) Barros and the late Louis G. Barros.

Surviving, besides his mother, are two brothers, Antone G. and John G., both of Taunton; four sisters, Mrs. Mary Bettencourt, Mrs. Alfred P. (Leona) Ventura, and Mrs. William (Delores) Desmirous, all of Taunton; and Mrs. Constance Martin of Orlando, Fla. and several nieces and nephews.
