PHILIP N. BARROS
LONG BEACH, CAL.—
Philip N. Barros, 64, of 7453 Franklin Dr., Buena Park, and formerly of Staples Street, East Taunton, Mass., died yesterday morning at Veteran's Administration Hospital following a long illness.

Born in Bridgeport, Conn., he was the son of the late Nicolau and Mary (Pina) deBarros and husband of the late Vivian (Montgomery) Barros.

He had been a resident of California since September of last year.

He worked many years as a laborer for various construction companies. Most recently, he was employed as a truck driver for the Texaco Company, of Providence, R.I., until his retirement at age 62.

He was a World War Two veteran having served with the U.S. Navy as a Seaman First-Class.

He was a former communicant of the Holy Family Church in East Taunton.

He leaves four sons, David Barros of Boston, Mass., Manuel Barros, Michael Barros and Roger Barros, all of Taunton, Mass.; four daughters, Nona Barros of Taunton, Cynthia Maurico of Providence, R.I., and Phyllis Saunders and Linda Moore, both of Buena Park.

He is also survived by four brothers, John Barros of East Taunton, Bert Barros of Holbrook, Mass., August Barros of Foxboro, Mass., and George Barros of Taunton; four sisters, Julia Dean and Augustine Robinson, both of Springfield, Mass., and Mary Booney and Marcia Barros, both of Taunton; 17 grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews.
