Mary E. Barrow

Mary E. (Backus) Barrow, 62, of 70 Chestnut St., Fairhaven, died yesterday after a long illness. She was the widow of Everett J. Barrow.

Born in New Bedford, she had lived in Fairhaven for 33 years and was a communicant of St. Joseph Church, Fairhaven. She retired three years ago after working in the Fairhaven town clerk-treasurer's office for 10 years. Prior to that, she worked for Cherry & Webb Co. in New Bedford for many years.

For many years, Mrs. Barrow had been an officer for the Sconticut Neck Improvement Association. She was notary public, Fairhaven town meeting member, and a member of Democratic Town Committee. She had been a bookkeeper for St. Joseph School, past member of the Couple Club of St. Joseph Church and Couples Group of the Church of the Good Shepherd.

Survivors include four daughters, Cynthia Kuliga of Wareham, Patricia Mello, Susan Davignon and Maureen DuPont, all of Fairhaven; her mother, Josephine (Rogers) Backus of Our Lady's Haven, Fairhaven; a brother, Edward L. of Kingston; two sisters, Hilda Grindrod of South Dartmouth and Eileen Backus of West Wareham, and eight grandchildren.

Arrangements are by the Fairlawn Mortuary, 180 Washington St., Fairhaven.
