

12-06-82 TG

MARIANNO MEDEIROS - NEW BEDFORD -

Marianno "Tic" Medeiros, 71, of Tripp Towers, Ruth Street, New Bedford, a long time Taunton gas station operator, died this morning at St. Luke's Hospital, New Bedford, following a long illness.

Born in Fall River, he was a son of the late Marianno and Francelina (Medeiros) Medeiros. He was a member of the Seventh Day Adventist Church of Taunton.

For many years he ran the Pacific Service Station at the intersection of High and Washington Streets. After that area of the city was redeveloped, he ran the Shell Service Station on Tremont Street. He retired many years ago.

The five-year resident of New Bedford was a World War Two Army veteran. He served in the 77th Engineering Divison.

He is survived by a son, James Medeiros of Virginia; two brothers, Everett Medeiros of North Dighton and James N. Medeiros of Lakeville; three sisters, Mrs. Edward (Ilda) Dever of Inveness, Fla., Mrs. Manuel (Alice) Medeiros of Taunton and Mrs. Manuel (Beatrice) Camara of Longwood, Fla.; three grandchildren; several nieces and nephews.

DANIEL CARDOZA

PROVIDENCE, R.I. -
Daniel J. Cardoza, 57, of 147 Davis St., Rehoboth, a tool crib attendant, died suddenly Saturday at Rhode Island Hospital. He was the husband of Mildred (Hall) Cardoza.

Born in Rehoboth, he was a son of Mary (Noons) Cardoza and of the late Emanuel Cardoza.

For the past seven years he has been employed at New England Butt Co., Providence, as a tool crib attendant. Prior to that he was in the production control department at Quonset Point Naval Air station for 25 years.

A World War Two Navy veteran, he was a member of the American Legion Post 311, Seekonk, the Alveira E. Vieira Post, VFW, Portsmouth, and the National Association of Retired

Federal Employees.

In addition to his wife and mother, he is survived by a daughter, Susan Cardoza of Rehoboth; a sister, Mrs. Rose Barao of Swansea; two brothers, Freeman Cardoza of Portsmouth and Jerome Cardoza of Stoughton.