George W. Carpenter

EAST PROVIDENCE — George W. Carpenter, 54, of 65 N. Broadway, a foreman in the jet engine department of the former Quonset Point Naval Air Station for 19 years until illness forced his retirement in 1972, died Friday at Rhode Island Hospital. He was the husband of Marcia (Batista) Carpenter.

Born in East Providence, he was a son of Alice (Edwards) Carpenter, and the late Roland Carpenter.

Mr. Carpenter was an Army veteran of the Korean War.

Besides his wife and mother he leaves three sons, Douglas and David Carpenter, both of Providence, and George W. Carpenter Jr. of East Providence; two daughters, Gail and Robin Carpenter, both of Providence; two stepsons, Richard Pierson of Riverside and John Pierson of East Providence; a stepdaughter, Mary Pierson of East Providence; two brothers, Richard Carpenter of Seekonk, Davis Carpenter of East Providence, and three grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held Tuesday at 10 a.m. at the William W. Tripp Funeral Home, 1008 Newport Ave., Pawtucket. A military burial will be in Gate of Heaven Cemetery.
