

56 MARY COOK 3/15/83

Mary M. Cook, 74, formerly of 95 Johnson St., died Friday at Rhode Island Hospital in Providence, R.I., following a long illness. She was the widow of Perry L. Cook.

A housewife for most of her life, she was a former communicant of Our Lady of Lourdes Church.

She was the daughter of the late Victor and Maria (Nunes) Silvia.

Her survivors include two sons, Glen Cook and Steven A. Cook, both of Taunton; a daughter, Mrs. Carol N. Butler of Taunton; a brother, Arthur Silvia of Austin, Tex.; a sister, Mrs. Nestor (Ida) Silveira of New Bedford; 10 grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.