

DR. JOSEPH COREY

TG 2/25/78

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — Dr. Joseph S. Corey Jr., 72, of St. Petersburg, husband of Irma (Haas) Corey, died Wednesday in St. Petersburg following a short illness.

Born and educated in North Dighton, Mass., he was a son of the late Joseph S. and Mary (Souza) Corey. He worked at the former Mount Hope Finishing Co. in North Dighton before Army service during World War Two.

He later received a degree at the Palmer School of Chiropractics in Davenport, Iowa, where he practiced before moving to Florida.

In addition to his wife, he leaves two sisters, Mrs. Evelyn Luiz of Manteca, Calif., and Mrs. Conrad (Mary) Bleau of Gardnerville, Nev.; two brothers, James Corey and Ernest Corey, both of Taunton, Mass.; and several nieces and nephews.
