DARTMOUTH — Anthony Correia, 79, of 141 Willis St., South Dartmouth, died Saturday after a brief illness.

He died at St. Luke's Hospital, New Bedford.

Born in New Bedford, son of the late Manuel and Mary (Frias) Correia, he had lived most of his life in South Dartmouth. A World War II Army veteran, he was employed by Dartmouth as a maintenance man until his retirement.

Survivors include four sisters, Amy Mello and Mary Cathcart, both of New Bedford, Hilda Marques of Acushnet and Alda Macedo of Bristol, R.I.

Arrangements are by the Saunders Funeral Home, 495 Park St., New Bedford.
