

4/5/83

ANTONE COSTA

Antone Costa, 79, of 399 Brook St., Dighton, a former employee of Mt. Hope Finishing Company and the Dighton school system, died Wednesday evening at Morton Hospital after a brief illness. He was the husband of Ruth W. (White) Costa.

Born in Dighton, son of the late Manuel and Rita (Rogers) Costa, he worked for many years as a foreman in the frame room of the former-Mt. Hope Finishing Company.

He retired 14 years ago as a custodian in the Dighton school system.

In addition to his wife, of Dighton, he leaves three sons, William Costa and Edwin R. Costa, both of Dighton, and Anthony D. Costa, of Rumford, R.I., and a daughter, Mrs. Edward (Phyllis) Zagrodny, of Dighton.

He is also survived by three sisters, including Mary Costa, Mrs. Joseph (Clara) Pacheco, and Mrs. John (Fannie) Lima, all of Dighton.

He also leaves seven grandchildren, four great grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews.

RAYMOND N. KNOTT

Raymond N. Knott, 75, of 31 West Weir St., a retired employee of Texas Instruments, died Wednesday at Morton Hospital after a brief illness. He was the husband of Mary M. Perry.

Born in Fall River, son of the late Richard and Laura E. (Wrightington) Knott, he was educated in Fall River Schools. For 20 years, he worked as an assayer at Texas Instruments, Attleboro, until his retirement in 1972.

He was a communicant of Sacred Heart Church, and a member of the West Side Senior Citizens.

In addition to his wife, of Taunton, he leaves a son, Richard T. Knott, of Taunton, and a daughter, Mrs. Paul M. (M. Carol) Pennington, of Forney, Texas.

He also leaves a granddaughter and grandson, and several nieces and nephews.