

JOHN COSTA

John Costa, 62, of 130 Winslow Ave., Somerset, died suddenly Saturday at Charlton Memorial Hospital in Fall River. He was the husband of Roseline (Arruda) Costa.

A Merchant Marine seaman since he was 18, he lived in Taunton for six years before moving to Somerset 20 years ago.

He was a member of the Portuguese-American Civic League and of St. John of God Parish of Somerset and its Holy Name Society.

Born in Fall River, he was the son of the late Manuel and Francelina (Soares) Costa.

Surviving, in addition to his widow, are a son, John Joseph Costa of Somerset; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Paul (Barbara) Ferreira of North Dighton; two brothers, Manuel Costa and Julio Costa, both of Fall River; four sisters, Mrs. Frank (Jenny) Mosteiro of Tiverton, R.I.; Mrs. Eugene (Hilda) DelRoss of Middletown, R.I., and Francelina Costa and Beatrice Costa, both of Fall River; and several nephews and nieces.

4/30/84 TG