

Maria Angelina (deSousa) daCosta, 67, of 23 Knight St., communicant of Our Lady of Lourdes Church, died Friday at Morton Hospital following a long illness. She was the wife of Luis daCosta.

Born in St. Michael, Azores, she was a daughter of the late Jeramias and Maria A. (Vieira) deSousa. She was a resident of Taunton for the past 16 years.

She was employed as a painter for the Corcoran Shoe Company of Stoughton for several years before her retirement seven years ago.

Beside her husband, she is survived by three sons, Louis daCosta and Joseph S. Costa, both of Taunton and Manuel S. Costa of East Providence, R.I.

She also leaves two daughters, Mrs. Manuel (Maria Angelina) daCosta of Taunton and Mrs. Manuel (Maria Espirito Santo) Gaspar of Somerset.

She also leaves two brothers, Jeramias V. deSousa of Taunton and Isais V. deSousa of Raynham. Also three sisters, Mrs. Antonio (Mary G.) Ferreira, Mrs. John (Evangelina) Coelho and Mrs. Manuel (Maria deJesus) Lopes all of Taunton, 10 grandchildren and several nieces and nephews. 1-24-81

AVELINO NUNES

FALL RIVER — Retired dispatcher Avelino Nunes, 71, of 171 Pleasant View Ave., Somerset, died Saturday at the Charlton Hospital. He was the husband of Mary Silvia.

He had worked as a dispatcher for the Bonanza Bus Lines, was a member of the Village Senior Citizens and Holiday Senior Bowlers of Somerset and attended St. John of God Church, Somerset.

Born in Maderia Islands, he was a son of the late Joseph and Adelaide (Freitas) Nunes and had lived in Taunton for many years before moving to Bristol and then to Somerset nine years ago.

Survivors include four daughters, Mrs. Ralph (Betty) Saben of Raynham, Mrs. James (Helen) Rassol, Mrs. Donald (Carol) McGurn of Rehoboth, Mrs. Eugene (Irene) Dorsey of East Taunton; a stepson, David Sylvia of Manchester, N.H.; a brother, Caesar of Taunton; four sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Alexander of Bristol, Mrs. George (Bella) Costa, Mrs. Charles (Mary) Almeida, Mrs. Arthur (Ruth) Andrade, all of Taunton; 11 grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.