

ituaries

Carlton R. Silva

Carlton R. Silva, 45, of 82 Summit St., died yesterday after a long illness. He was the husband of Evelyn (Santos) Silva.

He was born in New York, he lived most of his life in New Bedford and was a communicant of Our Lady of Assumption Church. He was employed by Thurston's Roofing Co. of Rockland as a roofer for 26 years.

Mr. Silva was a Commissioner of Greater New Bedford Tri-Town Softball League and a coach for the Ward 5 Club Softball Team.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, Jeffrey W. Santos and Curtis M. Silva both of New Bedford; his parents, Manuel and Mary (Vital) Silva of Acushnet; a brother, William of New York; a sister, Delores McGuire of New Bedford and 3 grandchildren.

Arrangements are by the Saunders Funeral Home, 495 Park St., New Bedford.

Betty Elizabeth Jesse

KINGSTON — Betty Elizabeth (Conquest) Jesse, 43, of Smith's Lane, died yesterday after a long illness. She was the wife of Daniel Jesse.

She was born in New Bedford and lived in Kingston for the last two years.

Mrs. Jesse was a graduate of New Bedford Voke.

Survivors include her husband; her mother, Clara (Ricardo) Conquest of New Bedford, two daughters, Christine Biedermann and Karen Biedermann both of Kingston; a son, Steven Biedermann of Pease Air Force Base, Portsmouth, New Hampshire; a brother, Francis Manley of Westport.

Arrangements are by the Shepard

Daniel J. Dargis

Daniel J. Dargis, 28, of 111 Center St., Fairhaven, died yesterday unexpectedly.

He was born in New Bedford, and lived most of his life in Fairhaven. He was a communicant of St. Joseph Church. He was employed by Russman's Janitorial Service.

Survivors include his mother, Hilda (Almeida) Diggett, a daughter, Sherri Dargis; two brothers, Paul Moniz and Robert Dargis; two sisters, Joan Cambra and Kathy Braley all of Fairhaven.

Arrangements are by the Fairhaven Funeral Home, 117 Main St., Fairhaven.

Joao Jacinto daCosta

Joao Jacinto daCosta, 58, of McGurk Street, New Bedford, died Thursday after a long illness. He was the husband of Eugenia (Coelho) daCosta.

He was born in St. Michael, Azores, lived in New Bedford for ten years and was a communicant of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church. He was employed as a laborer.

Survivors include his wife, a brother, Manuel Matues daCosta of New Bedford; two sisters, Rosa Zangoa and Isabel Ferreira both of New Bedford.

Arrangements are by the Perry Funeral Home, 111 Dartmouth St., New Bedford.