Leo J. Doucet, 94

NEW BEDFORD — Leo J. Doucet, 94, of Pope Street, formerly of Palmer Street, died yesterday after a long illness. He was the widower of Phila (Sisson) Doucet, who died Sept. 2, and son of the late William and Bridget (Savoie) Doucet.

He died at Bristol Nursing Home.

He was born in New Brunswick and lived in the New Bedford area most of his life. He formerly was employed by the Dan's Pavilion in the South End.

Mr. Doucet served in the Army during World War I.

Survivors include a daughter, Vilroy Keyes, and a grandson, Laurence J. Keyes, both of North Dartmouth.

Arrangements are by the Wilson Chapel, 479 County St.
