

DAVID L. DUPONT

6/25/83
David L. Dupont, 47, of 2447 County St., Dighton, a maintenance machinist with ICI Americas Inc. for 18 years, died Tuesday at Morton Hospital following a long illness.

Born in Taunton, he was the husband of Eleanor N. (Souza) Dupont and the son of Mrs. Rose (Roderigues) Dupont and the late John P. Dupont.

He was a Dighton resident for the last 24 years and had served with the Marines as a Master Sgt. in Japan, Hawaii and Okinawa during the Korean War.

He was a member of St.

Peter's Church; a member and a trustee of the International Chemical Workers Union Local 779; a volunteer fireman in Dighton; a member of the Dighton Golf and Card Club. He also was a former member of the St. Vincent DePaul Society at St. Peter's and a former member of the Dighton Bowling League.

Besides his wife and mother, he leaves two sons, David L. Dupont II, of Melbourne, Fla. and Douglas M. Dupont of the United States Coast Guard in Woods Hole; three brothers, Joseph Dupont of Wareham, Manuel Dupont of Dartmouth and Donald Dupont of Huntington Beach, Calif.; four sisters, Mrs. Alfred (Mary) Dessendo of East Weymouth, Mrs. Thomas (Amelia) Medeiros of Somerset, Mrs. Arthur (Hazel) Garcia of San Diego, Calif. and Mrs. Frances (Barbara) Cardoza of Taunton; and several nieces and nephews.
