EDWARD J. ENOS

BOSTON — Edward J. Enos of Bridgewater, the husband of Emily (MaDan) Enos, died Wednesday after a brief illness, at University Hospital here. He was 54.

Born in Bridgewater, where he lived all his life, he was the son of Manuel and Elizabeth (Oliver) Enos. He was employed at Brockton Footwear, where he had worked for over 25 years.

A World War Two veteran, he served in the European-African-Middle Eastern Theater with the 48th Medical Battalion, Second Armored Division.

He was a communicant of St. Thomas Aquinas Church and a member of the Lincoln AA Club in Bridgewater.

Survivors, besides his wife and parents, include two sons, Donald E. Enos and Glen J. Enos, both of Bridgewater; three daughters, Gail Kelleher and Lorinda J. Enos of Bridgewater and Mrs. Stephen (Judith) Hilmelman of Hanson; four brothers, Ernest A. Enos, Gorge J. Enos, and Richard H. Enos of Bridgewater and Anthony T. Enos of Brockton; a granddaughter, Stacey Kelleher of Bridgewater; and several uncles, aunts, cousins, nephews and nieces.
