

ANNE FELISBERTO

FALL RIVER — Funeral services were held this morning for Anne Felisberto of 205 Gratton St., who died Tuesday at Rhode Island Hospital. She was the widow of John Felisberto.

With her late husband, she owned and operated Angelina's Pizzeria on South Main Street in Fall River for several years.

During World War Two she worked as a senior welder and shipwright at the Kaiser Shipyard in Providence, R.I. She was later employed at the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. plant in Fall River for 10 years before operating several restaurants and pizza houses in the city.

Before retiring in 1981, she worked as a cook and kitchen supervisor at the Meeting Street School in East Providence, R.I. for nine years.

Active in the Easter Seal Society of Rhode Island, she worked for the group's annual fund-raising telethon.

She was a member of St. William's Parish and of the American Legion Auxiliary, Post 10, of the Riverside section of East Providence.

Born in Fall River, she was the daughter of the late Carmino Luongo and the late Rafaela (Gesualdi) Luongo and a resident of the city most of her life.

She leaves three sons, John E. Felisberto and Mark Felisberto, both of Fall River, and Allen A. Felisberto of Newton, N.H.; a daughter, Cathleen S. Felisberto of East Freetown; three sisters, Catherine Vernon of Somerset, Lucille Couture of Fall River, and Ida Mills of Houston, Tex.; and nine grandchildren.

CHARLES E. CORREIA

Charles E. Correia, 71, of 40 Vernon St., formerly of Tremont Street, died Sunday at Morton Hospital following a long illness. He was the husband of Mary L. (Booth) Correia.

Born in Taunton, son of the late Antone and Mary (Perry) Correia, he was employed as purchasing agent for Morton Hospital for many years, retiring in 1979.

He was one of the founders and past president of two Morton Hospital groups, the Retirees Association and the Employees Social Club. He was a past vice-president of the Oakland Senior Citizens.

He also held memberships in the Taunton Lodge of Elks and the Italian Naturalization Club, and was a retired member of the East Taunton Social Club and a former member of the Cancer Society.

Surviving, besides his widow, are two sons, Charles E. Correia of East Taunton and Richard A. Correia of Middleburg, Fla.; two daughters, Mrs. Sanford (Shirley) Williams of Middleburg, Fla., and Mrs. Michael (Mary) Nevitt of Coral Spring, Fla.; three sisters, Mrs. Mary Brancos of Taunton, Mrs. Antone (Isabel) Gomes of Raynham, and Mrs. Juliette McKinley of Bridgewater; nine grandsons; and several nephews and nieces.

JOAO GARANITO

Joao Gomes Garanito, 80, of 66 Oak St., husband of Matilde (Fernandes) Granito, died at Morton Hospital last night following a seven-month illness.

A carpenter most of his life, he was last employed as a custodian at the state unemployment office on School Street.

He was a member of St. Anthony's Church.

Born in Madeira, he was the son of the late Manuel G. and Maria (Gomes) Garanito.

Besides his widow, he leaves three sons, John F. Garanito, Alvarino Garanito, and Arimando Garanito, all of Taunton; four daughters, Mrs. James (Cidalia) Nobrega, Mrs. John (Theresa) Andrade, and Mrs. Fernando (Andriana) Azevedo, all of Taunton, and Judite Gomes Garanito of Caracas, Venezuela; one brother, Antonio Garanito of Caracas; two sisters, Conceicao Garanito and Clementina Garanito, both of Madeira; 17 grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and several nephews and nieces.

DOROTHY CURT WHITE

Dorothy Curt White, age 78, of 629 Eugene Murphy Village in Somerset, died today in Fall River's Charlton Memorial Hospital.

Born in the Azores, Mrs. White was a resident of the Somerset-Dighton area for 52 years.

She was the widow of the late Sylvester White, and the daughter of the late Joseph T. Curt and the late Maria Benevides Curt.

She retired 13 years ago from her job as a machine operator at the Auerbach Bathrobe company.

Mrs. White was the past president of the Amalgamated Retirees Club, the past president of the Portuguese American Civic League of Dighton, the financial secretary of the Eugene Murphy Village, a member of the American Legion Auxiliary of Swansea, and a member of St. Patrick's Church in Somerset.

She is survived by one son, Dighton fire chief Joseph T. White of Dighton; one daughter, Mrs. Thomas Lorraine Botelho of Somerset; one brother, Manuel Curt of Fall River; two sisters, Mrs. Esther Torres and Mrs. Hilda DeMouro, both of Somerset; four grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and several neices and nephews.

JOSEPH MENDES, JR.

HYANNIS — Joseph Mendes, Jr., 64, of West Yarmouth, husband of Helen A. (Vacoulis) Mendes, died Monday at Cape Cod Hospital, following a long illness.

He served in the U.S. Army Air Corps as a glider pilot during World War Two. In September of 1984, he flew to Holland to participate in the 40th anniversary of the liberation of that country. He was a member of the National Glider Pilots Association, and was junior vice-commander of VFW Post 2578 in Hyannis.

He had worked for the Raytheon Company in Waltham as a precision electronics assembler, and was shop steward for the electrical workers' union there. He left Raytheon in 1956 and was then self-employed as a garage owner and mechanic in Brockton.

He retired to West Yarmouth in 1973 and was active in several bowling leagues in the area.

Born and educated in Taunton, he was the son of the late Joseph and Gabriella (Melin) Mendes.

Besides his widow, he leaves several nephews and nieces.