

ette, Thursday, October 9, 1980

Obituaries

MRS. LUCY FIGUEIREDO

BOSTON — Mrs. Lucy (Chaves) Figueiredo, 22, of 199 Grove St., East Bridgewater, the wife of Luis M. Figueiredo, died unexpectedly last night at the Massachusetts General Hospital, where she had been a patient for two days.

Born in Weymouth, Mrs. Figueiredo was a lifelong resident of East Bridgewater and was the daughter of Jose and Maria J. (Figueiredo) Chaves, also of East Bridgewater.

She was a 1976 graduate of East Bridgewater High School and was a communicant of St. John's Church in East Bridgewater.

Prior to her death, Mrs. Figueiredo was employed as a teller at the East Bridgewater Savings Bank.

In addition to her husband and parents, she is survived by two grandmothers, Mrs. Maria Chaves of East Bridgewater and Mrs. Maria Figueiredo of Taunton.

Also, Mrs. Figueiredo leaves two brothers, Jose, who is currently serving in the United States Air Force in San Antonio, Tex., and John Chaves, both of East Bridgewater.

She also is survived by a sister, Miss Rose Mary Chaves of East Bridgewater and several aunts, uncles and cousins.

DOROTHY BETTENCOURT

MARTHA'S VINEYARD — Dorothy (Bradley) Bettencourt, 80, of Hiawatha Road, Oak Bluffs, formerly of Taunton, died Tuesday at Martha's Vineyard Hospital following a long illness. She was the widow of Antone Mooney Bettencourt.

She was a member of the Sacred Heart Church Women's Guild, the Oak Bluff Senior Citizens Club and the Martha's Vineyard Council on Aging.

Born in Oak Bluffs, she was the daughter of the late Daniel and Annie (Drummy) Bettencourt and had lived in Taunton from 1934 to 1961.

Survivors include two sons, William of Oak Bluffs, Thomas of Adrian, Mich.; a daughter, Helen McGrath of Oak Bluffs, formerly of Taunton; three grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

CECELIA L. GOSSON

Cecelia L. (Souza) Gosson, 58, of 1302 North Main St. Raynham, a retired Paul A. Dever School employee, died Wednesday at Morton Hospital after a long illness.

Daughter of the late Joseph and Mary (Vieira) Souza, she was born and lived her life in Taunton. She worked for many years at Paul A. Dever State School as a domestic worker, and retired two years ago.

A communicant of St. Ann's Church in Raynham she is survived by one son, Kevin J. Gosson of Raynham.

She also leaves three brothers, Jose Souza of California, Joseph Souza of Utah and Michael Souza of Brockton and several nieces and nephews.