

ANTHONY FIGUEREDO

Anthony Figueredo, 47, of 139 Colonel Bell Dr., Brockton, formerly of Taunton, died suddenly yesterday at Cardinal Cushing Hospital in Brockton. He was the husband of Wanda (Bozek) Figueredo of Taunton.

He had worked for the past 15 years as a toll testman for the New England Telephone Company, and was a member of Taunton Lodge of Elks 150 and the Italian Naturalization Club. He was a communicant of St. Paul's Church.

During the Korean War, he served in the U.S. Army. Born in Taunton, he was the son of the late Antone and Grace Figueredo.

Besides his wife, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. Robert (Catherine) Wall of Bermuda, and two brothers, Lincoln Saunders of Tampa, Florida, and George Figueredo of Taunton.

He also leaves three sisters, Mrs. Joseph (Emily) DeSolio and Mrs. Frederick (Geraldine) Haskell, both of Taunton, and Mrs. Joseph (Lorraine) Pacheco of Raynham.

He is also survived by many nieces and nephews.
