ELDEN C. FONTES

Word was received here today of the death of Elden C. Fontes, 45, a former Taunton resident who died May 19 in Salt Lake City.

Born in Canton, Ohio, he was the husband of Virginia (Perry) Fontes and the son of Antone Fontes of Scituate and Carlotta Lopes of Onset.

He retired from the U.S. Air Force after 22 years as a technical sergeant and at the time of his death was working for the IBM company. He had received an Outstanding Performance Award from that company.

A graduate of Wareham High School, he was also on the dean's list and in Who's Who of American College Students while attending Boise State University. He was a graduate of that college.

He had lived in Maine, Japan, California and Massachusetts as well as the Mountain Home Air Force Base before moving to Boise in 1974.

Besides his wife and parents, he is survived by two sons, Michael and Elden Jr. and three daughters, Carla, Bonnie and Juanita, all of Boise.

He also leaves a brother, Bobby of Onset and a sister, Julia Lopes of Portsmouth, R.I.

A memorial mass will be said at St. Mary's Church in Onset June 21 at 9 a.m.
