

Albert J. Ford, 38; victim of drowning

PROVIDENCE — Albert J. Ford, 38, of Olney Towers, 1 Valley St., accidentally drowned Wednesday in the Woonasquatucket River, Providence.

Born in Providence, he was a son of Joseph C. Ford of West Warwick, and Emily (Cabral) Silvia of Providence.

Mr. Ford worked for Beany & Sons Movers & Truckers, the American Red Ball Moving Service, George Arpin & Sons Inc., and for the past five years for Cady Moving Inc. before retiring in 1978 because of a disability.

Besides his parents he leaves three sons, Albert, John and Joseph Ford; a daughter, Sandra Ford, all of Providence; eight brothers, Joseph Ford of Inverness, Fla., John Ford and Arthur Silvia, both of Providence, Joseph Ford of Coventry, Henry Ford of Warwick, William, Richard and Charles Ford, all of West Warwick, and nine sisters, Mrs. Shirley Handy of Warwick, Mrs. Carol Kindberg of Rehoboth, Mrs. Joyce Ullucci of North Providence, Mrs. Christine Hopkins, Selina Silvia and Mrs. Madeline Auger, all of Providence, and Mrs. Debra Anderson, Kathleen and Susan Ford, all of West Warwick.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 7:45 a.m. from the A. Tarro & Sons Funeral Home, 425 Broadway, with a Mass of Christian Burial at 9 at St. Anthony's Church, Plainfield Street. Burial will be in Gate of Heaven Cemetery, East Providence.

2/12/84 PJ