CHARLES FURTADO

Charles E. Furtado, 54, a retired supervisor with Taunton Silversmiths, Ltd., died suddenly this morning at his 16 Second Street home. He was the husband of Edith M. (Donnelly) Furtado.

Born in Taunton, he was educated in city schools and was the son of Frances (Martin) Furtado and the late Manuel Furtado.

A veteran of World War Two, he served in the U.S. Navy as a coxswain.

He retired from Taunton Silversmiths in 1977 after working there 27 years. He attended Sacred Heart Church.

Besides his widow and mother, he is survived by six sons, David C. of Boston, Douglas E. of Iowa, and Daniel J., Dennis P., Donald E. and Dean P., all of Taunton; five daughters, Donna L., Dorothy A., Debra E. and Denise J., all of Taunton and Mrs. Dennis (Diane) Sylvia of Assonet; a brother, Edward Furtado of Rehoboth; a sister, Mrs. Louis (Ruth) Dansereau of Taunton; and three grandchildren.
