

1784

EDMUND GOMES

MIDDLEBORO — Edmund M. Gomes, 71, of 96 Forest St., Middleboro died unexpectedly Tuesday at St. Luke's Hospital. He was the husband of Mabel F. (Long) Gomes.

Born in Middleboro, he was the son of the late Joseph F. and Mary C. (Corriea) Gomes.

He was a retired foreman at the Dean Morris Shoe Company in Middleboro and in later years, had worked at the housekeeping department in the Lakeville Hospital.

He was a communicant of Sacred Heart Church, Middleboro and was a pigeon fancier.

Besides his wife, he leaves one son, Albert E. Gomes of East Freetown; one daughter, Shirley Frye of Middleboro; six brothers, William Gomes of Lakeville, Alfred Gomes, Arthur Gomes, Edward K. Gomes and Louis Gomes, all of Middleboro, and LeRoy Gomes of Lansboro; three sisters, Rosalie Kitchel of Tampa, Fla., Helen Nutting of Middleboro, and Carolyn Zion of Middleboro; eight grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, and several nieces, nephews and cousins.

Other survivors

Edmund M. Gomes of 96 Forest St., Middleboro, whose obituary ran in yesterday's Gazette, is also survived by a brother, Francis Gomes of Taunton.