

Leonora Correia 11/25/79

PAWTUCKET — Leonora Correia, 81, of 672 Benefit St., died Thursday in Memorial Hospital after a five-year illness. She was the wife of Tristoa Correia Sr.

Born in Pico, the Azores, on July 22, 1898, she was the daughter of the late John and Isabel (Goulart) Bernardo. She came to New Bedford, Mass., 67 years ago, then lived in Fall River, Mass., before moving here 34 years ago.

She was a communicant of the Church of St. Leo the Great.

Besides her husband, she leaves a son, Tristoa Correia Jr. of Pawtucket; a daughter, Mrs. Adeline Briere of Pawtucket; a brother of the Azores; five sisters, Mrs. Maria Bota and Mrs. Silvana Goulart, both of California, and three in the Azores, and a grandson.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 9 a.m. from the R.W. Chatigny Funeral Home, 1093 Central Ave., with a Mass of Christian Burial at 10 in the Church of St. Leo the Great, Central Ave. Burial will be in Gate of Heaven Cemetery, East Providence.

John Gonsalves

PROVIDENCE — John Gonsalves, 79, of 64 Curtis St., died yesterday at home after an illness. He was the husband of the late Mary (Evans) Gonsalves.

He was born in Lisbon, Portugal, on Mar. 25, 1900, came to this country about 40 years ago, and had lived in Providence for the past 40 years.

Mr. Gonsalves retired at 65, after working for the city of Providence's incinerator plant, Fields Point, for about 10 years. He worked at R.I. Hospital for many years prior to working for the city.

Survivors are a son, John Gonsalves, Jr., with whom he lived, and a half-brother, Anthony Gonsalves of New York.

The funeral will be held from the Rebello Funeral Home, 901 Broadway, East Providence, Tuesday at 8 a.m., with a Mass of Christian Burial at 9 in Our Lady of the Rosary Church, Traverse Street. Burial will be in Gate of Heaven Cemetery, East Providence.
