

JESSE GOVAYA

Jesse Govaya, husband of Helen (Weston) Govaya of North Woodstock, N.H., died Thursday morning at Plymouth Hospital in Plymouth, N.H., after a brief illness. He was 93.

Born in Funchal, Madeira, he lived in Taunton for many years before moving to North Woodstock. He was a self-employed painter in his early years, and also worked for Taunton painting contractors John Fitzgerald and Earl Parker before he retired.

In addition to his wife, he leaves a son, Richard Govaya of Taunton, and two daughters, Juliette Mathieu of Taunton and Mrs. George (Lydia) Braese of North Fort Meyers, Fla.

He also leaves two sisters, who live in Funchal, and six grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews.
