

7/12/81

Norman D. Langlois

NIANTIC, Conn. — Norman D. Langlois, 57, of 80 East Pattagansett Rd., formerly of Pawtucket, died yesterday at Lawrence Memorial Hospital, New London, Conn. He was the husband of Eleanor (Coelho) Langlois.

Born in New Bedford, Mass., a son of Aurora (Pedro) Langlois of Inverness, Fla. and the late Joseph Langlois, he lived in Niantic 15 years.

Until retiring in 1977, Mr. Langlois worked in advertising and public relations in graphic arts for Electric Boat Company, Groton, Conn. Previously, he was director of advertising for the ITT Royal Electric Division in Woonsocket, Clinton, Mass., and Montreal, Canada. He was also public relations director for Evans Case of Attleboro, Mass., Crawford Engineering of Providence, the former Hemphill Company of Central Falls, and the former Potter & Johnson Machine Company of Pawtucket.

He attended the University of California, Los Angeles, Calif., where he studied marketing and advertising.

Mr. Langlois was a World War II Marine veteran.

Besides his wife and mother, he leaves two sisters, Mrs. Claire O'Gara of Citrus Heights, Calif., and Mrs. Irene Robideaux of Inverness, Fla.

The funeral will be held Tuesday at 8 a.m. from the William W. Tripp Funeral Home, 1008 Newport Ave., Pawtucket, with a Mass of Christian Burial in St. Anthony's Church, Lawn Avenue, Pawtucket, at 9. Burial will be in Mount St. Mary's Cemetery, Pawtucket.