ROCHESTER — Doris C. (Eddy) Parker, 85, of 280 North Avenue, formerly of Acushnet, died yesterday after a long illness. She was the widow of Albert J. Parker and the daughter of the late Herbert A. and Ella (Cramston) Eddy.

She died at Tobey Hospital in Wareham.

She was born in Oak Bluffs, lived in Acushnet about 50 years and in Rochester for the past 10 years, where she lived with her granddaughter, Nancy Wright. She was a member of the Long Plain United Methodist Church and taught in Acushnet Public Schools for about 50 years, until retiring 20 years ago. She also taught rug binding in area vocational schools in the evenings.

Mrs. Parker was secretary and treasurer of her church for more than 50 years. She also was a member of the Rochester Senior Citizens.

Survivors include a son, William C. of Mineral Wells, Texas; a daughter, Jane L. Gula of New Bedford; 15 grandchildren; 18 great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

Arrangements are by the Kirby Funeral Home, 61 Tarklin Hill Road, New Bedford.
