

2/6/85 TG

MANUEL CABRAL

BROCKTON — Manuel Cabral, 74, of 34 Wilbur St., husband of the late Maria (Cambra) Cabral, died Tuesday afternoon at the Cardinal Cushing General Hospital following surgery.

Born in St. Michael, Azores, he was a son of the late Mario and Estrella (Martin) Cabral. He came to the United States in 1954 and was a communicant of St. Anthony's Church.

He was a member of the Portuguese-American Civic Club. Prior to his retirement in 1976, he was a shoe stitcher at the Cochran Shoe Co. in Stoughton for 20 years.

He leaves three daughters, Mrs. Francis J. (Theresa) Pacheco, Mrs. Alfred J. (Rose) Costa and Mrs. Robert (Lydia) Bowen 3d, all of Taunton; a brother, Joseph Cabral of East Providence, R.I.; eight grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

ANTONIO GOULART

Antonio Pereira Goulart, 75, of 50 Plain St., husband of Maria (Rodrigues) Goulart, died shortly after arrival at Morton Hospital Monday night after a sudden illness.

Born in Fayal, Azores, he was a son of the late Antonio P. and Augusta (Adelaide) Goulart, he moved to the United States in 1968. He was a communicant of Our Lady of Lourdes Church.

Before his retirement in 1980, he was a maintenance man at the Whittenton Garment Co. for five years.

In addition to his wife, he leaves a son, Antonio P. Goulart of Taunton; a brother, Fernando Goulart of Fayal; two sisters, Augusta Goulart of California, and Mrs. Aida Silveira of Fayal; two granddaughters, Rosemary Goulart and Marjorie Goulart, both of Taunton; and several nieces and nephews.

MADLINE J. THORNE

Mrs. Madeline J. (Machado) Thorne of 30 Olney St, widow of Charles A. Thorne, died Tuesday at Rhode Island Hospital in Providence after a lengthy illness. She was 57.

Born in Taunton, daughter of the late Joseph and Caroline (Batista) Machado, she was educated in Taunton schools.

Her survivors include five sons, Charles D. Thorne, Daniel B. Thorne, Terry L. Thorne, Robert L. Thorne, all of Taunton, and Stanley D. Thorne of Boston; and a daughter, Mrs. Bruce (Carol) L. Benson of Williamsport, Pa.

She also leaves four sisters, Mrs. Rocky (Anna) Rogers of Taunton, Mrs. Emile (Rita) Frates of Taunton, Mrs. Joseph (Frances) Pine of Providence, and Mrs. Mary Montaro of Scituate; three brothers, Joseph Machado of Taunton, Manuel Machado of Taunton, and Anthony Machado of Florida, and six grandchildren.

JOHN FITTA

Word has been received here of the Jan. 30 death of John A. Fitta, 40, of 3678 17th St., San Francisco, Calif. He died at the Kaiser Hospital in San Francisco following a brief illness.

Born in Fall River, he was a son of John R. and Alice A. (Silvia) Fitta. His family moved to Taunton when he was a child.

He graduated from Taunton High School in 1962 and earned a bachelor's degree in education from Bridgewater State College in 1966. He later received his master's degree in education at Bowling Green University, Ohio.

A past president of the Taunton Teachers' Union, he taught at the Mulcahy, Cohannet and Weir Grammar Schools and at Taunton High School. He also taught at Louisiana State University at Baton Rouge, and at the time of his death was teaching at the Edgewood Children's Center in San Francisco.

He was also a deacon-in-training at the Christ Episcopal Church in San Francisco.

In addition to his parents, both of Pawtucket, R.I., recently moved from Raynham, he leaves a brother, Paul M. Fitta of Somerset; a sister, Jayne F. Fitta of New Orleans; a nephew; and several aunts and uncles.

2/9/85 MANUEL SOARES TG

Manuel Soares, 99, of 79 Cherry St., the husband of Maria (Oliveira) Soares, died Thursday evening at Morton Hospital following a long illness.

He was the father-in-law of Register of Deeds and former mayor Joseph L. Amaral.

Born in Madeira, he was the son of the late Jose and Ana (Bento) Soares. He came to the U.S. in 1905.

Considered one of the oldest in the city's Portuguese-American community, he was a communicant of St. Anthony's Church. He was the owner and operator of the former Riverside Market on West Adams Street for many years before his retirement in 1960.

Prior to that, he owned a dairy and delivered bottled milk to homes in the School Street Village area.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by one son, Harry Soares of Taunton; seven daughters, Mrs. Mae Galloway of Boston, Mrs. A. Joseph (Josephine) Martin of Florida, Mrs. James T. (Elsie) Thomas, Mrs. Lawrence (Annie) Perry, Mrs. Lillian Greer, Mrs. Joseph L. (Virginia) Amaral, and Mrs. Helen White, all of Taunton; 20 grandchildren and 26 great-grandchildren.

2/9/85 MARY LUBY TG
NORTHBORO—Mary (Morris) Luby, 41, of 26 Omaha Ave., wife of Frederick J. Luby and daughter of James and Yvette (Desmarais) Morris, died Friday.

Survivors include one daughter, Jennifer Luby, 8; a son, Ryan Luby, 5; three sisters, Mrs. Edward (Jeanne) Roy of Dighton, Mrs. Daniel (Phyllis) McMullen of East Taunton, and Mrs. Paul (Marilyn) Murphy of Attleboro.

Also, several nieces and nephews. (Funeral notice later)

RICHARD LOPES

Richard John Lopes of 45 O'Bannon Place, Swansea, formerly of Dighton, died Sunday at Davis Park Veterans' Administration Hospital in Providence, R.I., following a short illness. He was 45.

Employed as a television technician by Perry TV Service of Swansea, he was a veteran of the U.S. Army, in which he served three years, from 1958 through 1960.

He was a former communicant of St. Joseph's Church of North Dighton.

He was born in Dighton, son of Lena (Badejo) Lopes Lima and the late John Lopes.

In addition to his mother, of Fall River, he leaves two daughters, Deborah A. Lopes and Laura J. Lopes, both of Dighton; a brother, Gilbert J. Lopes of Dighton; two sisters, Mrs. Victor (Mary) Rapoza of Dighton and Mrs. Benjamin (Lena) Powers of Swansea; and several uncles, aunts, nephews, and nieces.

2/12/85 TG
CHRISTOIANO SANTOS

Christoiano "Pais" Santos, 84, of 36 Kilmer Ave., husband of Laura (Quaresma) Santos, died Sunday afternoon at Morton Hospital following a long illness.

Born in Lisbon, Portugal, son of the late Antonio P. and Mary Rita (Clara) Santos, he came to America in 1920. He was a communicant of St. Joseph's Church.

Before his retirement in 1963, he owned and operated Steve's Bakery on Kilmer Avenue for five years.

In addition to his wife, he leaves two daughters, Mrs. Albertina Santos Emond and Mrs. Gilbert (Alice) Bosquin, both of Taunton; one sister, Elvira Santos of Lisbon, Portugal; four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.