

Laura Manchester-Snow

Laura (Rose) Manchester-Snow, 79, of Long Island, died July 31 at her home after a long illness. She was the widow of John Manchester and Arthur Snow.

She was born in New Bedford, where she lived at 100 State St., and lived most of her life in Long Island. She was employed by Martin's Department Store in Brooklyn until retiring.

Mrs. Manchester-Snow was a member of the Long Island Senior Citizens.

Survivors include a daughter, Barbara Gamper of Long Island, a sister, Agnes Rose of New Bedford, and two grandchildren.

Arrangements were made in Long Island.

08/10/81