

Antonio A. Martins

PAWTUCKET, R.I. — Antonio A. Martins, 86, of 306 High St. died Monday after a long illness. He was the husband of Maria F. (Saraiva) Martins.

He died at Pawtucket Memorial Hospital.

He was born in Guarda, Gouveia, Portugal, came to the United States in 1920. He lived first in New York, then lived in Pawtucket for two years. He was employed by the Phelps Dodge Copper Products Co., Yonkers, N.Y., as a factory worker. He also was employed as a construction worker, retiring in 1965.

Survivors include his widow and nieces and nephews in the New Bedford area.

Arrangements are by the Charles Coelho Funeral Home, Central Falls.