Anthony Mello

PROVIDENCE — Anthony Mello, 78, of 234 California Ave. died yesterday at Wayland Health Center after a five-year illness. He was the husband of Helen B. (Binden) Mello.

Born Nov. 28, 1901, in New Bedford, Mass., he was the son of the late John and Silvana Mello. He was a resident of Providence for 35 years, previously residing in New Bedford.

He was employed as a boilermaker with Local 29 of Boston for 25 years, until retiring in 1974.

Besides his wife he leaves two stepsons, Nathan and Raymond Cornell, both of Providence; three daughters, Mrs. Evelyn Lynch of Warwick, Mrs. Marilyn Forcier of Providence and Mrs. Marjorie Mulhern of Maine; two brothers, George and Manuel Mello, both of New Bedford; one sister, Miss Rosalina Mello of New Bedford; 10 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

His funeral will be held Tuesday at 8 a.m. from the Russell J. Boyle Funeral Home, 331 Smith St., with a Concelebrated Mass of Christian Burial in St. Pius Church, Eaton Street, at 9.
