

DAVID MELLO

PROVIDENCE, R.I. —

David Anthony Mello, 39, of 21 Highland Court, Taunton, and husband of Joann M. (Drew) Mello, died Monday afternoon at Rhode Island Hospital following a long illness.

Born in Taunton, he was the son of Frank Mello and the late Pauline (Vincent) Mello.

He worked for several years at the Boston Insulated Wire and Cable Inc. as a machine operator before retiring last December because of illness.

He was a veteran of the Vietnam War, an SP4 in the Quartermaster Corps, Company C, 66th Battalion of the United States Army.

He was a communicant of St. Joseph's Church.

He is survived by his wife; his father, Frank Mello of Freetown; two sons, Stephen P. Mello and David J. Mello of Taunton; two daughters, Pauline Elizabeth Mello and Pamela Ann Mello, both of Taunton; two brothers, Frank Mello Jr. of Taunton and Richard Mello of Brockton; and several nieces, nephews, aunts and uncles.
