

tte, Wednesday, July 23, 1980

Obituar

GEORGE MENDONCA

Diesetter George P. Mendonca, 57, of 44 Summer St., died suddenly at his home Tuesday of natural causes according to Medical Examiner William H. Bennett. He was the husband of Angelina (Rodrigues) Mendonca.

He was employed by Copercraft Guild as a diesetter for many years. He had served with the U.S. Army during World War Two and had been awarded a Red Cross Citation in 1978 by the Taunton chapter as a 39-pint blood donor.

Born in Taunton, he was the son of the late Joseph and Elvira (Pacheco) Mendonca.

Survivors include his wife, four sons, Edward and Matthew of Taunton, Michael and Mark of Heywood, Calif.; five daughters, Mrs. David (Donna) Welch of Bridgewater, Mrs. Carol Brooks, Ann and Michelle, all of Taunton, and Mrs. Paul (Deborah) Simpson of San Lorenzo, Calif.; a brother, Joseph P. of Taunton; and two sisters, Rose and Mrs. John (Agnes) Martin of Taunton.