

ALFRED MOITZOZO

LAKEVILLE — Alfred G. Moitozo, 71, of 30 Holly Rd., died Monday at the Island Nursing Home following a lengthy illness. He was the husband of Lillian L. Rogers.

Born in Taunton, the son of the late Joseph and Josephine A. (Cabral) Moitozo, he was a lifelong resident of the city. He was educated in Taunton schools.

An army veteran of World War Two, he was a former tool and die maker for Poole Silver Company, retiring in 1977.

He was a member of the Rhode Island School of Design and a communicant of St. Ann's Church.

Besides his wife, he leaves one son, Dr. Richard P. Moitozo of Coventry, R.I.; one daughter, Mrs. Eugene F. (Luann) M. Cote of Sommerset; three brothers, Mario Gracia of Florida, Antone Moitozo of Center Harbor, N.Y., and George Moitozo of Taunton; and nine grandchildren.
