Arthur B. Monteiro, 65, draftsman

Arthur B. Monteiro, 65, who fought back against a crippling case of multiple sclerosis, died yesterday after a long illness. He was a resident of 82 North St., New Bedford.

In 1970, Mr. Monteiro was commended in The Standard-Times "Hats Off" column "for exceptional courage in combatting the ravages of multiple sclerosis, with which he has been afflicted since 1962."

Confined to a wheelchair, Mr. Monteiro continued to work as a draftsman at the Aerovox Co., until retiring earlier this year.

He was a member of the United Social Club, the Cape Verdean-American Veterans Association and was a past president of the Aerocap Club.

Mr. Monteiro was a communicant of Our Lady of Assumption Church.

Survivors include his mother, Constance (Baptista) Monteiro of New Bedford; a son, Ronald A. of New Bedford; five brothers, Edward, Adolph and Robert, all of New Bedford, George of Rockville, Md., and Joseph of Wareham; six sisters, Evelyn Almeida, Pauline Cardoza, Mary Ames, Marion Barrows and Betty Anne Fermino, all of New Bedford, and Alice Leighton of
