

8/18/82

JOHN MULZER
CUMBERLAND, R.I. IG

Inspector John J. Mulzer, 66, of Chimney Hill Apartments, Mendon Road, died Tuesday at home following a year-long illness. He was the husband of Adeline M. (Costa) Mulzer.

An inspector in the fine tool division of Madison Industries in Lincoln for 20 years, he had retired last year and moved to Cumberland. He was a member of the Cranston Christian Fellowship and coordinated the fellowship's nursing home ministry.

Born in New London, Conn., he was the son of the late John C. and Evelyn (Rooney) Mulzer and had resided in Providence for 40 years.

In addition to his widow, he leaves a son, Richard W. Mulzer of Providence; two daughters, Mrs. Beverly A. Swain of Warwick and Mrs. Barbara E. Estrella of Rehoboth, Mass.; two brothers, Lawrence Mulzer of Cumberland and Everett Still of Moosup, Conn.; and six grandchildren.