

CASIMIRO FERNANDES

FALL RIVER — Casimiro L. Fernandes, 82, of 592 Myricks St., East Taunton, a former employee of the Cone-Blanchard Machine Company of Cambridge, died Saturday evening at the Rose Hawthorne Lothrop Home following a lengthy illness.

He was the husband of Mary (Correia) Fernandes.

Born in Portugal, son of the late Antonio and Maria (Beaker) Fernandes, he came to the United States 70 years ago, and had been a resident of East Taunton since 1938.

Until his retirement in 1970, he was employed as a machinist at the former Cone-Blanchard Machine Company, Cambridge. He was a communicant of Holy Family Church.

In addition to his wife, he leaves four sons, Francisco Fernandes, of East Taunton; Bernard Fernandes and Daniel Fernandes, both of Lakeville, and Joseph "Larry" Fernandes, of Raynham.

He also leaves three daughters, Mrs. Manuel (Beatrice) Gonsalves, of Cranston, R.I.; Mrs. Edward (Diolinda) Brackett, of Lakeville, and Mrs. John (Irene) Connors, of East Taunton.

He also leaves 22 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren.

ELMER BAPTISTE

BRIDGEPORT, Conn. — Elmer F. Baptiste, 52, of 594 Howard Ave., who worked as a laborer for a local contractor, died suddenly Saturday in Bridgeport.

Born in Taunton, Mass., he was the son of the late Frank and Elvira (Costa) Baptiste.

He is survived by two sons, George Lopes and Bradley Lopes, both of Taunton, and a brother, George Costa, of Taunton.

He also leaves four sisters, Mrs. George (Martha) Applewhite, of Taunton; Mrs. Albert (Hazel) Johnson, of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. Walter (Esther) Lopes and Mrs. Nancy Silva, both of Taunton.

He is also survived by several nieces and nephews.

ANTONIA NUNES

BROCKTON — Antonia Nunes, 88, of 156 Center St., South Easton, a recipient of the Marian Medal, died Saturday at Braemoor Nursing Home. She was the wife of the late Manuel Nunes.

Born in Madeira, Portugal, daughter of the late Jose and Francesca (Pita) Andrade, she came to the United States at age 18 and settled in South Easton. Her husband was also a native of Madeira.

She was a communicant of Immaculate Conception Church, North Easton, and for many years prepared the church's altar linens.

In 1979 she received the Marian Medal from Bishop Daniel Cronin at St. Mary's Cathedral, Fall River.

She leaves a son, Joseph P. Nunes, of Cobleskill, N.Y., and two daughters, Mary D. Shepardson, of South Easton, and Barbara M. Taylor, of Sharon.

She is also survived by 13 grandchildren and five great grandchildren. Her late sister, Mary Rose, was a resident of Taunton.

MORRIS ENOS

NORTON — Morris J. Enos, 90, of 250 Mansfield Ave., a retired painter with the Horton-Angel Company of Attleboro, died Sunday afternoon at Country Haven Nursing Home after a brief illness.

He was the husband of the late Anna M. (Waters) Enos.

Born in Taunton, son of the late John and Frances Enos, he attended Taunton schools.

He was a communicant of Holy Family Church, East Taunton.

He retired as a painter with the Horton-Angel Company of Attleboro in 1967, after 10 years of service.

He leaves a son, William H. Enos, of Norton, along with eight grandchildren, seven great grandchildren, a niece and a nephew.

10/4/82 T&A