Russell C. Ouellette Sr.

TIVERTON, R.I. — Russell C. Ouellette Sr., 63 of 5 West Ave. died yesterday after a brief illness. He was the husband of Gertrude J. (LeDoux) Ouellette and the son of Lillian E. (McAndrews) Ouellette of Fall River and the late Anthony Ouellette.

He died at Rhode Island Hospital, Providence.

He was born in Fall River and lived there until moving to Tiverton 26 years ago. He was a communicant of St. Christopher Church. He was a registered pharmacist for more than 40 years and a registered audiologist.

Mr. Ouellette attended Fall River schools and the College of William and Mary in Virginia.

He owned the Professional Pharmacy, Fall River, for approximately 30 years and owned the Professional Hearing Clinic, also in Fall River. Until 15 years ago, he owned the Professional Pharmacy in New Bedford.

He served as a first lieutenant in the Army during World War II and later in the National Guard. He was a member and past president of the Fall River Druggists Association, the Southeastern Massachusetts Druggists Association and the Fall River Exchange Club. He was chairman of the Fall River Boys Club Building Fund and the Boys Club's Camp Welch in Assonet. He was a member and on the executive board of the former Fall River General Hospital, the Quequechan Club and the Fall River and New Bedford country clubs.

Survivors include his widow; his mother; two daughters, Joanne McCarthy of Arlington, Va., and Elizabeth Ouellette of New York City; a son, Russell C. Jr. of Tiverton; two brothers, Thomas G. of Tiverton and Leo A. of Fort Lauderdale, Fla.; a sister, Elaine Hoskison of Glendora, Calif.; and several nieces and nephews.

Arrangements are by the Jeffrey E. Sullivan Funeral Home, 550 Locust St., Fall River.
