

Obituaries

C. GEORGE PACHECO

RAYNHAM — C. George Pacheco, 58, of 1210 Locust St., a security guard at Raynham Dog Track, died early this morning at home of natural causes. He was the husband of Ruth L. (Leonard) Pacheco.

Born in Raynham, he was a son of the late Manuel F. and Margaret (McMerriman) Pacheco. The Holy Family Church communicant died the day before his 59th birthday.

For most of his life he was a dairy farmer in Raynham. He was also the owner and operator of Capeway Transportation for seven years. Most recently he was employed at the Raynham Dog Track.

In addition to his wife, Ruth, he leaves two sons, George F. and Robert P. Pacheco, both of Raynham; a daughter, Mrs. Wayne (Carol) Finch of Raynham; a brother, Frank L. Pacheco of Raynham; two sisters, Mrs. Manuel (Margaret) Rose and Mrs. Louis (Florence) Bonaparte, both of Raynham; five grandchildren; several nieces and nephews.

RF 12/11/82