

Frank P. Perry, 62

FULLERTON, Calif. — Frank P. Perry, 62, of Fullerton, died Sunday in California after a long illness. He was the husband of Margaret (Camera) Perry.

Sept 1977
Born in New Bedford, he lived in the city for many years before moving to California and was a communicant of St. Phillip Zenide Church, Fullerton. He was employed by the Union Street Railway as a bus driver for 16 years until his retirement.

In addition to his widow he is survived by three daughters, Margaret Conside of Massachusetts, Theresa Morehouse of Anaheim, and Patricia Teixeira of Fullerton; a brother, Angelo Perry of Massachusetts; two sisters, Irene Perry and Tina Martin, both of Massachusetts, and 14 grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are by the Daly & Bartel Mortuary, Anaheim, Calif.