Obituary

George Perry, 51, was rug salesman

George J. Perry, 51, of 7 Marvel St., president and treasurer of George J. Perry Rug Company, Inc., for the past 30 years, died Saturday afternoon, shortly after his arrival by ambulance at Morton Hospital.

He was the husband of Louise M. (Soares) Perry.

Born in Taunton, son of the late Antone and Julia M. (Medeiros) Perry, he attended city schools, graduating from Taunton High School in 1948.

A communicant of Our Lady of Lourdes Church, he was active in church affairs with his wife.

He was a member of the B.P.O. Elks Lodge 150, past president of the New England Institute of Rug Cleaning, and a member of the Our Lady of Lourdes Holy Ghost Society and the Our Lady of Lourdes Holy Name Society.

In addition to his wife, he leaves two sons, Ronald G. Perry and Mark A. Perry, and two daughters, Mrs. Leo (Lillian M.) Schleicher and Mrs. Glenn (Judith A.) Sousa, all of Taunton.

He is also survived by five grandchildren.

Due to his death, the rug company will be closed until September 7. His sons will then continue to operate the business.
