

Obituaries

Joseph S. Perry

SOMERSET, Mass. — Joseph S. Perry, 86, of 20 Watuppa Ave., a loomfixer at the former Border City Mills, Fall River, died Friday at Charlton Memorial Hospital. He was the husband of Agnes (DeCambra) Perry.

Born in Bretanha, St. Michael, the Azores, he was a son of the late Manuel S. and Anna (Pereira) Perry, and had lived in Somerset for 63 years, previously living in Fall River.

Mr. Perry was a member of the Somerset Village and Center Senior Citizen Club, and a communicant of St. John of God Church.

Besides his wife he leaves two sons, Edward Perry of Fullerton, Calif., and Gilbert Perry of Somerset; five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 7:45 a.m. from the Manuel Rogers & Sons Funeral Home, 1521 N. Main St., Fall River, with a funeral Mass at St. John of God Church, Brayton Avenue, at 9. Burial will be in St. Patrick's Cemetery.